

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
DAILY.
 By mail, in advance, postage prepaid.
 One year, $5.00; Three months, $1.50;
 Six months, $2.50; One month, $1.00.
 Delivered by Carriers in City, per week.
SEMI-WEEKLY.
 By mail, in advance, postage prepaid.
 One year, $3.00; Six months, $1.50;
 Three months, $1.00; One month, $1.00.
 Delivered by Carriers in City, per week.
WEEKLY.
 By mail, in advance, postage prepaid.
 One year, $1.00; Six months, $1.00;
 Three months, $1.00; One month, $1.00.
 Delivered by Carriers in City, per week.
 An extra copy to person getting up Club.
 The above prices are for the paper only. Remittances in full, in advance, are accepted. The paper is not sent to subscribers who do not send the money in a Registered Letter.
 THE INTELLIGENCER will present daily the news in all departments, from all quarters of the world, as well as a complete record of local events.
 THE WEEKLY is printed on Thursday, and can be had at the counter, in advance, ready for mailing. Send a copy to your friends and relatives with news from home!
 SUBSCRIBERS—Persons desiring to have the DAILY INTELLIGENCER left regularly at their residences in the city and suburbs, can be served by leaving their address, and the paper will be delivered by the carrier. If the paper is not delivered, it will be sent by mail, and the subscriber must be accompanied by the writer's real name and address.
 Business Letters for us should be addressed "Frederick Campbell," and should in no case be addressed to any individual number of the firm by name.

The Intelligencer.

Office 25 & 27 Fourteenth Street.

FREW & CAMPBELL,
 PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 16, 1876.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
 RUTHERFORD B. HAYES, OF OHIO.

VICE PRESIDENT,
 WILLIAM A. WHEELER, OF NEW YORK.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

GOVERNOR,
 NATHAN OFFY, JR., of Harrison.

1ST VICE PRESIDENT,
 F. H. CRAGO, of Marshall.

2ND VICE PRESIDENT,
 C. M. SHINN, of Taylor.

CLERK OF THE COURT OF APPEALS,
 MOSES FRANKENBERGER, of Kanawha.

ATTORNEY GENERAL,
 JOHN A. HUTCHINSON, of Wood.

JUDGES OF COURT OF APPEALS,
 (Long Term)
 W. H. H. CLICK, of Berkeley.
 R. L. BERSHIRE, of Monongalia.

(Short Term)
 E. R. BROWN, of Jackson.
 CONGRESS—FIRST DISTRICT,
 HON. C. F. SCOTT, of Ritchie County.

CONGRESS—SECOND DISTRICT,
 COL. WARD E. LAMORE, of Berkeley.

CONGRESS—THIRD DISTRICT,
 HON. C. W. SMITH, of Cabell.

CONGRESS—FOURTH DISTRICT,
 HON. D. F. PUGH, of Tyler County.

CONGRESS—FIFTH DISTRICT,
 COL. F. R. HANSEN, of Jackson.

REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF WEST VIRGINIA.

A. W. CAMPBELL, Chairman, Wheeling.

T. H. LOGAN, Treasurer, " "

W. J. W. COVINGTON, Secretary, " "

J. C. CUNNINGHAM, M. Alliance.

C. C. COLE, Parkersburg.

D. H. WILLARD, Pleasant.

G. W. ATKINSON, Charleston.

OUR WETZEL LETTER.

The Democratic Schism Not Healed as Yet—Delaplane and Good among the Wild Democracy of Wetzel—Colonel Ben's Broken Promises—More about the Local Candidates.

NEW MARKET, W. VA., August 14, 1876.

Editor of the Intelligencer:

In our last letter we were laboring under the delusion that the schism in the Democratic ranks in this county had been healed, and that all was lovely, and we so informed you. But since the paper containing our letter has been received we hear very emphatic denials of what we then supposed to be the fact. It is now confidently asserted by Democrats that the seemingly harmonious meeting at Wiley's on the 5th inst., was only a surface indication, and that down deep in the under-current of "Reform" there exists the same determined desire to compel the masses to vote in the interest of the so-called leaders, as they have done heretofore. While a great portion of those who were present at the meeting on that day were only apparently satisfied with the arrangement, many of them not voting for any measure presented, for which reason they now assert that they do not feel themselves bound by the action of their party, and that the course of the whole business is not long but deep. On last Friday, the 11th inst., the Hon. Robert M. Delaplane, accompanied by Wm. O. Hoge, Esq., of your city, paid our little town a visit. They were traveling over, and came late and left early, going in the direction of Middlebourne, Tyler county. We fear they were not very favorably impressed with Wetzel Democracy. One incident occurred while they were here which will serve to show how Democratic candidates for Congress stand here. Here, Hoge and Delaplane and some two or three others were sitting on the piazza of the Point House when a noted candidate for Sheriff from the back part of the county remarked within the hearing of the parties to a brother Democrat that he must go to Parkersburg to the Democratic Congressional Convention, August 23d, and vote for Col. Ben Wilson for Congress, and that if he would do so his steamboat and hotel bills would come home with him. Such an offer, so made, fell like a damper upon Delaplane and Hoge, and no doubt hastened their departure. Wetzel Democracy are pretty evenly divided between Wilson and Goff.

Col. "Ben" has not been here this campaign. He ought to come and renew his broken promises made two years ago. How about that "railroad" or the creek? How about the "free distillery" business. His constituents will be able to hear after while that he talks "crooked."

Hanson Good, Esq., has been here more than once. He comes on steamboat some times and sometimes on foot. "Hans" has plenty of warm friends down here, both in and out of his party.

We are going to have a Tilden and Hancock election here. It is to be organized on next Saturday, the 19th inst. Local talent will be scarce. Possibly Captain "Bob" or Demosthenes Crouse, Esq., Stand from under. If you listen you can hear Crouse in Wheeling.

Some one has suggested to us that in our letter of the 7th inst., we had alluded to some of the candidates by not mentioning them. We here assure them that it was not intentional on our part, and we hasten to offer the "amends honorable." Thomas F. Snodgrass, Esq., has been a candidate for sheriff for the past four years. It makes no difference whether there is an election pending or not, he is always before the people. There are two reasons why men fail in politics; one is because the people do not know them, and the other reason is because the candidates do not know the people. Snodgrass has been running long enough to be found out. Let the independent voter beware. The ring will support the man they can control.

J. Black, Esq., of Burton, was the only person named in our former letter as a Democratic candidate for the House of Delegates. We now have Joseph Horner, Esq., who is probably the coming plank in his platform. He is in favor of the immediate repeal of the Internal Revenue Law requiring license to manufacture "apple jack," and pledges himself, if elected, to bring about that result. This is not a candidate with Horner. He got it from "Col. Ben," as that was his "cue" two years ago while canvassing here in Wetzel. We have not had the pleasure as yet of meeting Mr. Horner, but expect to be able to do so in a few days. He is digging "gingers" now in order to raise money enough to carry on the campaign. He says he wants money when he comes to town, as the "boys" will expect him to "set 'em up," and he always likes to be "set up."

Aaron Morgan, Esq., (son of Elijah) wants to go to the Legislature. His venerable appearance ought to draw considerable support. If he is depending on personal merit he will fail. If, however, he can convince the Democracy of Wetzel that the mantle of his illustrious sire has fallen upon him he may succeed.

A. G. Calvert, Esq., is another candidate. He has been prevailed upon by his friends to leave his farm and devote his talents to politics. In short, he wants to be a statesman, and he will want.

James Robinson, Esq., for House of Delegates, old bachelor, (a la Tilden) was a war Democrat, is now a "swamp angel." If Jim had a little more brains and would change his linen often, at least once a month, he might succeed.

We have a peculiar political atmosphere down here in Wetzel. Bro. Long, of the Vindicator, an original Jeffersonian Democrat, is an enthusiastic supporter of Peter Cooper and his Greenback theory, and he is drawing off with him a large number of voters of this county, mostly Democrats. His office is the headquarters of the Indiatons in this county.

Bro. Hart, of the Messenger, is on the fence politically. He is endeavoring to publish an independent journal, so that from his elevated position he can look down from either side of his high horse on the sea of contention raging around him.

We see in our offering for the week. If we see any thing of interest or importance we may write again next week. In the meanwhile let the Tilden and Hendricks Reformers remember

"There's a shill among them takin' notes." W.

Gov. Peirpoint for Congress in the Second District.

FAIRMONT, Aug. 14, 1876.

Editors of the Intelligencer:

Not long since I had the pleasure of reading your favorable mention of Col. Ward Lamon, of the Eastern Panhandle, for Congress in the Second District. The Republicans of Marion, which is a part of the District, have a feeling in saying, "let us not forget to mention to our representative Col. Lamon. So far as they are acquainted with his public life—his tenets and his ability to defend them—they are certainly very favorably impressed with him, and will give him their earnest, hearty support at the polls should he be the pleasure of a District Convention to make him a candidate. But notwithstanding all this, they beg leave to introduce to the Republicans and the people generally of the Second District the name of the true and tried, honest and competent fellow-citizen, Governor F. H. Peirpoint. It must be admitted by all concerned that the Governor is not only the best qualified, but the most deserving man in the District for the position. Since 1840, the beginning of his political life, he has been a consistent and constant worker in the cause of what is now known as Republicanism. He was an open opponent of the institution of slavery when it was a criminal offense to be such in his own State. For this reason he was expelled from the original Republican party of this region of the country. His whole career, before and since the war, has been one for the good of the people. But his history is too well known to need an extended notice at my hands. Governor Peirpoint has an aspiration for Congressional honors, but do know that his experience and ability would make him the ablest man in the District to compete with the Hon. B. F. Martin, the proslavery candidate of the original Republican party. It would certainly be an honor to the District to have such a man as the Governor to represent it in the lower House of Congress. It is the desire of his many friends that the Convention should consider his claims.

I can assure you without a heavy allusion to the Bourbonites here in Marion. They are far from being happy. There is yet a great gulf rushing madly between them and the Presidency. How they can ask the Union men, the honest men, and the self-respecting men to vote for Sammie Tilden, an anti-war Democrat, a former associate of Tweed and Morrissey, and a hard money advocate, is a little more than they can yet comprehend. They held their County Convention at their own place on Saturday, the 5th inst. It was quite the largest attended by the Grangers. The most novel feature in it was the showing which the farmers made in managing to control the nominations. They had everything pretty much their own way this time. In the course of the proceedings, Honorable Peirpoint, James Morrow, Jr., A. Brooks Fleming, and all the other former managers and brilliant headlights of the party in Marion were politely reminded that their turn had come to take back seats; that they had long placed their faith upon the principles of reform and retraction, and that honest, competent men were demanded to represent the interests of the people and preserve the honor of the party. Now, this may be all right in our former Democratic days, but in the present time, it is a different matter. It looks to me for all the world like a sad reflection on the pioneer patriotism of the Democratic party of Marion. No doubt, however, it was all well intended, no matter how it may have appeared to the inconsiderate outside world. The ridiculous, extravagant County Court system, an inquiry into the ways and wherefores of high taxation, and an investigation of the miserable road law, may have had a deal to do with the overthrow of the former party leaders.

The nominees for the House of Delegates, Robt. Lowe and C. E. Wells, are very ordinary men in point of ability; are not half up to the standard of late years' delegates, and I don't think can be elected. If the Republicans can't do better in their approaching primary election than the Democrats have done, the county might as well go unrepresented for the next year. It would be a mark of respect to the voters as well as of respectability.

The Democratic pole raising at Fairmont, in this county, on the 12th inst., I am told, was a disgrace to decency. The speakers on the occasion, though out and dried and anxious, were unable to command a hearing, the crowd, or most of it, preferring whisky, fair play and free fights.

FAREWELL ADDRESS.

Delivered by Miss Eliza J. Leas.

Squad one has suggested to us that in our letter of the 7th inst., we had alluded to some of the candidates by not mentioning them. We here assure them that it was not intentional on our part, and we hasten to offer the "amends honorable." Thomas F. Snodgrass, Esq., has been a candidate for sheriff for the past four years. It makes no difference whether there is an election pending or not, he is always before the people. There are two reasons why men fail in politics; one is because the people do not know them, and the other reason is because the candidates do not know the people. Snodgrass has been running long enough to be found out. Let the independent voter beware. The ring will support the man they can control.

J. Black, Esq., of Burton, was the only person named in our former letter as a Democratic candidate for the House of Delegates. We now have Joseph Horner, Esq., who is probably the coming plank in his platform. He is in favor of the immediate repeal of the Internal Revenue Law requiring license to manufacture "apple jack," and pledges himself, if elected, to bring about that result. This is not a candidate with Horner. He got it from "Col. Ben," as that was his "cue" two years ago while canvassing here in Wetzel. We have not had the pleasure as yet of meeting Mr. Horner, but expect to be able to do so in a few days. He is digging "gingers" now in order to raise money enough to carry on the campaign. He says he wants money when he comes to town, as the "boys" will expect him to "set 'em up," and he always likes to be "set up."

Aaron Morgan, Esq., (son of Elijah) wants to go to the Legislature. His venerable appearance ought to draw considerable support. If he is depending on personal merit he will fail. If, however, he can convince the Democracy of Wetzel that the mantle of his illustrious sire has fallen upon him he may succeed.

A. G. Calvert, Esq., is another candidate. He has been prevailed upon by his friends to leave his farm and devote his talents to politics. In short, he wants to be a statesman, and he will want.

James Robinson, Esq., for House of Delegates, old bachelor, (a la Tilden) was a war Democrat, is now a "swamp angel." If Jim had a little more brains and would change his linen often, at least once a month, he might succeed.

We have a peculiar political atmosphere down here in Wetzel. Bro. Long, of the Vindicator, an original Jeffersonian Democrat, is an enthusiastic supporter of Peter Cooper and his Greenback theory, and he is drawing off with him a large number of voters of this county, mostly Democrats. His office is the headquarters of the Indiatons in this county.

Bro. Hart, of the Messenger, is on the fence politically. He is endeavoring to publish an independent journal, so that from his elevated position he can look down from either side of his high horse on the sea of contention raging around him.

We see in our offering for the week. If we see any thing of interest or importance we may write again next week. In the meanwhile let the Tilden and Hendricks Reformers remember

"There's a shill among them takin' notes." W.

Gov. Peirpoint for Congress in the Second District.

FAIRMONT, Aug. 14, 1876.

Editors of the Intelligencer:

Not long since I had the pleasure of reading your favorable mention of Col. Ward Lamon, of the Eastern Panhandle, for Congress in the Second District. The Republicans of Marion, which is a part of the District, have a feeling in saying, "let us not forget to mention to our representative Col. Lamon. So far as they are acquainted with his public life—his tenets and his ability to defend them—they are certainly very favorably impressed with him, and will give him their earnest, hearty support at the polls should he be the pleasure of a District Convention to make him a candidate. But notwithstanding all this, they beg leave to introduce to the Republicans and the people generally of the Second District the name of the true and tried, honest and competent fellow-citizen, Governor F. H. Peirpoint. It must be admitted by all concerned that the Governor is not only the best qualified, but the most deserving man in the District for the position. Since 1840, the beginning of his political life, he has been a consistent and constant worker in the cause of what is now known as Republicanism. He was an open opponent of the institution of slavery when it was a criminal offense to be such in his own State. For this reason he was expelled from the original Republican party of this region of the country. His whole career, before and since the war, has been one for the good of the people. But his history is too well known to need an extended notice at my hands. Governor Peirpoint has an aspiration for Congressional honors, but do know that his experience and ability would make him the ablest man in the District to compete with the Hon. B. F. Martin, the proslavery candidate of the original Republican party. It would certainly be an honor to the District to have such a man as the Governor to represent it in the lower House of Congress. It is the desire of his many friends that the Convention should consider his claims.

I can assure you without a heavy allusion to the Bourbonites here in Marion. They are far from being happy. There is yet a great gulf rushing madly between them and the Presidency. How they can ask the Union men, the honest men, and the self-respecting men to vote for Sammie Tilden, an anti-war Democrat, a former associate of Tweed and Morrissey, and a hard money advocate, is a little more than they can yet comprehend. They held their County Convention at their own place on Saturday, the 5th inst. It was quite the largest attended by the Grangers. The most novel feature in it was the showing which the farmers made in managing to control the nominations. They had everything pretty much their own way this time. In the course of the proceedings, Honorable Peirpoint, James Morrow, Jr., A. Brooks Fleming, and all the other former managers and brilliant headlights of the party in Marion were politely reminded that their turn had come to take back seats; that they had long placed their faith upon the principles of reform and retraction, and that honest, competent men were demanded to represent the interests of the people and preserve the honor of the party. Now, this may be all right in our former Democratic days, but in the present time, it is a different matter. It looks to me for all the world like a sad reflection on the pioneer patriotism of the Democratic party of Marion. No doubt, however, it was all well intended, no matter how it may have appeared to the inconsiderate outside world. The ridiculous, extravagant County Court system, an inquiry into the ways and wherefores of high taxation, and an investigation of the miserable road law, may have had a deal to do with the overthrow of the former party leaders.

The nominees for the House of Delegates, Robt. Lowe and C. E. Wells, are very ordinary men in point of ability; are not half up to the standard of late years' delegates, and I don't think can be elected. If the Republicans can't do better in their approaching primary election than the Democrats have done, the county might as well go unrepresented for the next year. It would be a mark of respect to the voters as well as of respectability.

The Democratic pole raising at Fairmont, in this county, on the 12th inst., I am told, was a disgrace to decency. The speakers on the occasion, though out and dried and anxious, were unable to command a hearing, the crowd, or most of it, preferring whisky, fair play and free fights.

FAREWELL ADDRESS.

Delivered by Miss Eliza J. Leas.

Squad one has suggested to us that in our letter of the 7th inst., we had alluded to some of the candidates by not mentioning them. We here assure them that it was not intentional on our part, and we hasten to offer the "amends honorable." Thomas F. Snodgrass, Esq., has been a candidate for sheriff for the past four years. It makes no difference whether there is an election pending or not, he is always before the people. There are two reasons why men fail in politics; one is because the people do not know them, and the other reason is because the candidates do not know the people. Snodgrass has been running long enough to be found out. Let the independent voter beware. The ring will support the man they can control.

J. Black, Esq., of Burton, was the only person named in our former letter as a Democratic candidate for the House of Delegates. We now have Joseph Horner, Esq., who is probably the coming plank in his platform. He is in favor of the immediate repeal of the Internal Revenue Law requiring license to manufacture "apple jack," and pledges himself, if elected, to bring about that result. This is not a candidate with Horner. He got it from "Col. Ben," as that was his "cue" two years ago while canvassing here in Wetzel. We have not had the pleasure as yet of meeting Mr. Horner, but expect to be able to do so in a few days. He is digging "gingers" now in order to raise money enough to carry on the campaign. He says he wants money when he comes to town, as the "boys" will expect him to "set 'em up," and he always likes to be "set up."

Aaron Morgan, Esq., (son of Elijah) wants to go to the Legislature. His venerable appearance ought to draw considerable support. If he is depending on personal merit he will fail. If, however, he can convince the Democracy of Wetzel that the mantle of his illustrious sire has fallen upon him he may succeed.

A. G. Calvert, Esq., is another candidate. He has been prevailed upon by his friends to leave his farm and devote his talents to politics. In short, he wants to be a statesman, and he will want.

James Robinson, Esq., for House of Delegates, old bachelor, (a la Tilden) was a war Democrat, is now a "swamp angel." If Jim had a little more brains and would change his linen often, at least once a month, he might succeed.

We have a peculiar political atmosphere down here in Wetzel. Bro. Long, of the Vindicator, an original Jeffersonian Democrat, is an enthusiastic supporter of Peter Cooper and his Greenback theory, and he is drawing off with him a large number of voters of this county, mostly Democrats. His office is the headquarters of the Indiatons in this county.

Bro. Hart, of the Messenger, is on the fence politically. He is endeavoring to publish an independent journal, so that from his elevated position he can look down from either side of his high horse on the sea of contention raging around him.

We see in our offering for the week. If we see any thing of interest or importance we may write again next week. In the meanwhile let the Tilden and Hendricks Reformers remember

"There's a shill among them takin' notes." W.

Gov. Peirpoint for Congress in the Second District.

FAIRMONT, Aug. 14, 1876.

Editors of the Intelligencer:

Not long since I had the pleasure of reading your favorable mention of Col. Ward Lamon, of the Eastern Panhandle, for Congress in the Second District. The Republicans of Marion, which is a part of the District, have a feeling in saying, "let us not forget to mention to our representative Col. Lamon. So far as they are acquainted with his public life—his tenets and his ability to defend them—they are certainly very favorably impressed with him, and will give him their earnest, hearty support at the polls should he be the pleasure of a District Convention to make him a candidate. But notwithstanding all this, they beg leave to introduce to the Republicans and the people generally of the Second District the name of the true and tried, honest and competent fellow-citizen, Governor F. H. Peirpoint. It must be admitted by all concerned that the Governor is not only the best qualified, but the most deserving man in the District for the position. Since 1840, the beginning of his political life, he has been a consistent and constant worker in the cause of what is now known as Republicanism. He was an open opponent of the institution of slavery when it was a criminal offense to be such in his own State. For this reason he was expelled from the original Republican party of this region of the country. His whole career, before and since the war, has been one for the good of the people. But his history is too well known to need an extended notice at my hands. Governor Peirpoint has an aspiration for Congressional honors, but do know that his experience and ability would make him the ablest man in the District to compete with the Hon. B. F. Martin, the proslavery candidate of the original Republican party. It would certainly be an honor to the District to have such a man as the Governor to represent it in the lower House of Congress. It is the desire of his many friends that the Convention should consider his claims.

I can assure you without a heavy allusion to the Bourbonites here in Marion. They are far from being happy. There is yet a great gulf rushing madly between them and the Presidency. How they can ask the Union men, the honest men, and the self-respecting men to vote for Sammie Tilden, an anti-war Democrat, a former associate of Tweed and Morrissey, and a hard money advocate, is a little more than they can yet comprehend. They held their County Convention at their own place on Saturday, the 5th inst. It was quite the largest attended by the Grangers. The most novel feature in it was the showing which the farmers made in managing to control the nominations. They had everything pretty much their own way this time. In the course of the proceedings, Honorable Peirpoint, James Morrow, Jr., A. Brooks Fleming, and all the other former managers and brilliant headlights of the party in Marion were politely reminded that their turn had come to take back seats; that they had long placed their faith upon the principles of reform and retraction, and that honest, competent men were demanded to represent the interests of the people and preserve the honor of the party. Now, this may be all right in our former Democratic days, but in the present time, it is a different matter. It looks to me for all the world like a sad reflection on the pioneer patriotism of the Democratic party of Marion. No doubt, however, it was all well intended, no matter how it may have appeared to the inconsiderate outside world. The ridiculous, extravagant County Court system, an inquiry into the ways and wherefores of high taxation, and an investigation of the miserable road law, may have had a deal to do with the overthrow of the former party leaders.

The nominees for the House of Delegates, Robt. Lowe and C. E. Wells, are very ordinary men in point of ability; are not half up to the standard of late years' delegates, and I don't think can be elected. If the Republicans can't do better in their approaching primary election than the Democrats have done, the county might as well go unrepresented for the next year. It would be a mark of respect to the voters as well as of respectability.

The Democratic pole raising at Fairmont, in this county, on the 12th inst., I am told, was a disgrace to decency. The speakers on the occasion, though out and dried and anxious, were unable to command a hearing, the crowd, or most of it, preferring whisky, fair play and free fights.

FAREWELL ADDRESS.

Delivered by Miss Eliza J. Leas.

Squad one has suggested to us that in our letter of the 7th inst., we had alluded to some of the candidates by not mentioning them. We here assure them that it was not intentional on our part, and we hasten to offer the "amends honorable." Thomas F. Snodgrass, Esq., has been a candidate for sheriff for the past four years. It makes no difference whether there is an election pending or not, he is always before the people. There are two reasons why men fail in politics; one is because the people do not know them, and the other reason is because the candidates do not know the people. Snodgrass has been running long enough to be found out. Let the independent voter beware. The ring will support the man they can control.

J. Black, Esq., of Burton, was the only person named in our former letter as a Democratic candidate for the House of Delegates. We now have Joseph Horner, Esq., who is probably the coming plank in his platform. He is in favor of the immediate repeal of the Internal Revenue Law requiring license to manufacture "apple jack," and pledges himself, if elected, to bring about that result. This is not a candidate with Horner. He got it from "Col. Ben," as that was his "cue" two years ago while canvassing here in Wetzel. We have not had the pleasure as yet of meeting Mr. Horner, but expect to be able to do so in a few days. He is digging "gingers" now in order to raise money enough to carry on the campaign. He says he wants money when he comes to town, as the "boys" will expect him to "set 'em up," and he always likes to be "set up."

Aaron Morgan, Esq., (son of Elijah) wants to go to the Legislature. His venerable appearance ought to draw considerable support. If he is depending on personal merit he will fail. If, however, he can convince the Democracy of Wetzel that the mantle of his illustrious sire has fallen upon him he may succeed.

A. G. Calvert, Esq., is another candidate. He has been prevailed upon by his friends to leave his farm and devote his talents to politics. In short, he wants to be a statesman, and he will want.

James Robinson, Esq., for House of Delegates, old bachelor, (a la Tilden) was a war Democrat, is now a "swamp angel." If Jim had a little more brains and would change his linen often, at least once a month, he might succeed.

We have a peculiar political atmosphere down here in Wetzel. Bro. Long, of the Vindicator, an original Jeffersonian Democrat, is an enthusiastic supporter of Peter Cooper and his Greenback theory, and he is drawing off with him a large number of voters of this county, mostly Democrats. His office is the headquarters of the Indiatons in this county.

Bro. Hart, of the Messenger, is on the fence politically. He is endeavoring to publish an independent journal, so that from his elevated position he can look down from either side of his high horse on the sea of contention raging around him.

We see in our offering for the week. If we see any thing of interest or importance we may write again next week. In the meanwhile let the Tilden and Hendricks Reformers remember

"There's a shill among them takin' notes." W.

Gov. Peirpoint for Congress in the Second District.

FAIRMONT, Aug. 14, 1876.

Editors of the Intelligencer:

Not long since I had the pleasure of reading your favorable mention of Col. Ward Lamon, of the Eastern Panhandle, for Congress in the Second District. The Republicans of Marion, which is a part of the District, have a feeling in saying, "let us not forget to mention to our representative Col. Lamon. So far as they are acquainted with his public life—his tenets and his ability to defend them—they are certainly very favorably impressed with him, and will give him their earnest, hearty support at the polls should he be the pleasure of a District Convention to make him a candidate. But notwithstanding all this, they beg leave to introduce to the Republicans and the people generally of the Second District the name of the true and tried, honest and competent fellow-citizen, Governor F. H. Peirpoint. It must be admitted by all concerned that the Governor is not only the best qualified, but the most deserving man in the District for the position. Since 1840, the beginning of his political life, he has been a consistent and constant worker in the cause of what is now known as Republicanism. He was an open opponent of the institution of slavery when it was a criminal offense to be such in his own State. For this reason he was expelled from the original Republican party of this region of the country. His whole career, before and since the war, has been one for the good of the people. But his history is too well known to need an extended notice at my hands. Governor Peirpoint has an aspiration for Congressional honors, but do know that his experience and ability would make him the ablest man in the District to compete with the Hon. B. F. Martin, the proslavery candidate of the original Republican party. It would certainly be an honor to the District to have such a man as the Governor to represent it in the lower House of Congress. It is the desire of his many friends that the Convention should consider his claims.

I can assure you without a heavy allusion to the Bourbonites here in Marion. They are far from being happy. There is yet a great gulf rushing madly between them and the Presidency. How they can ask the Union men, the honest men, and the self-respecting men to vote for Sammie Tilden, an anti-war Democrat, a former associate of Tweed and Morrissey, and a hard money advocate, is a little more than they can yet comprehend. They held their County Convention at their own place on Saturday, the 5th inst. It was quite the largest attended by the Grangers. The most novel feature in it was the showing which the farmers made in managing to control the nominations. They had everything pretty much their own way this time. In the course of the proceedings, Honorable Peirpoint, James Morrow, Jr., A. Brooks Fleming, and all the other former managers and brilliant headlights of the party in Marion were politely reminded that their turn had come to take back seats; that they had long placed their faith upon the principles of reform and retraction, and that honest, competent men were demanded to represent the interests of the people and preserve the honor of the party. Now, this may be all right in our former Democratic days, but in the present time, it is a different matter. It looks to me for all the world like a sad reflection on the pioneer patriotism of the Democratic party of Marion. No doubt, however, it was all well intended, no matter how it may have appeared to the inconsiderate outside world. The ridiculous, extravagant County Court system, an inquiry into the ways and wherefores of high taxation, and an investigation of the miserable road law, may have had a deal to do with the overthrow of the former party leaders.

The nominees for the House of Delegates, Robt. Lowe and C. E. Wells, are very ordinary men in point of ability; are not half up to the standard of late years' delegates, and I don't think can be elected. If the Republicans can't do better in their approaching primary election than the Democrats have done, the county might as well go unrepresented for the next year. It would be